3. If it seems as though it will never come to pass, but deep down on the inside you are unwilling to give up on it – then it is most likely a dream from God.
4. If not everyone is as enthusiastic about it as you are – then it is most likely a dream from God.
5. If you have experienced resistance, setbacks, difficulty, and sometimes even frustration over it – then it is most likely a dream from God.
6. If it seems to consume your thinking and even seems to get bigger and bigger on the inside of you – then it is most likely a dream from God.
7. If it seems to define and shape your life – then it is most likely a dream from God.
